WELCOME

This morning we welcome two representatives from COOL, Executive Director Diane Thackston and Family Housing Case manager Shari Shaver. Trinity United has played a pivotal role in COOL since it's founding in 1982. In 2010 the pantry served 37,573 individuals with food enough for 450,936 balanced meals. We thank God for their partnership with us in our community.

Welcome to all who join together to worship here at Trinity United Lutheran Church today. Our goal is to invite you into a meaningful relationship with God that will transform your life. Whether you are a first-time visitor or long time member, the following items might be of help to you as you participate in our worship service.

Questions: Hospitality team members are located throughout our worship space. They are wearing a name tag with their name and "Hospitality Team Member" printed on it. They will be happy to answer any of your questions before, during or immediately after worship.

Worship Information Forms: In order to have a record of worship for both members and visitors, we ask that you fill out the worship information form. You may also use this sheet to communicate prayer requests, celebrate good news, or share information with the church staff. Worship information forms will be collected by the ushers during the Hymn of the Day so that your prayer requests may be offered in worship today.

Children: Children are always welcome in worship. However, should the need occur, the cry room is located at the back of the sanctuary. Changing tables are located in our washrooms.

Cell Phones: We ask that you make sure your cell phone is off or in "silent" mode so there are no phone calls during the worship service.

GATHERING

Jesus' summary of the law in today's gospel echoes our first reading from Leviticus. We are called not only to love God with heart, soul, and mind, but also to love our neighbor as ourselves. It is out of such deep care that Paul shares the gospel with the Thessalonian community. In the confession of sins, we acknowledge that we have not loved God, neighbor, and self; yet we gather to hear the word of forgiveness and to be strengthened by word and meal to be signs of God's love and mercy in the world.

*CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who forgives our sin, heals every illness,
 saves us from death, enfolds us with tender care,
 and crowns us with steadfast love.

All: Amen.

Pastor: Let us confess our sin
 in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Pastor: God of abundant mercy,

All: we confess that we are more ready to be forgiven than to forgive others.

 We hold too closely your gifts to us.
 We trample your vineyard, our good earth.
 Have mercy, O God;
 turn us again to you and toward others;
 and grant that we may live for you and die in you,
 for the sake of Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.
 Amen.

Pastor: God is generous and faithful, forgiving sins without number,
 welcoming all to the feast,
 giving us a place among the saints.
 Through the humble obedience of + Christ Jesus,
 who went to the cross for our sake,
 you are forgiven and made whole.
 The Spirit of God is at work in you,
 enabling you to live for one another.

All: Amen

ANTHEM

“Awake, Awake to Love and Work” Early American Melody,

arr. Carlton R. Young Choir

*Awake, awake to love and work, the lark is in the sky,
 The fields are wet with diamond dew, the worlds awake to cry
 Their blessings on the Lord of Life as He goes meekly by.*

*Come, let thy voice be one with theirs, shout with their shout of praise;
 See how the giant sun soars up, great Lord of years and days!
 So let the love of Jesus come and set thy soul ablaze:*

To give and give, and give again, what God hath given thee;

To spend thyself nor count the cost, to serve right gloriously
The God who gave all worlds that are, and all that are to be.

WORD

FIRST READING: Leviticus 19:1–2, 15–18

The holiness code in Leviticus urges people to be holy because God is holy. Holiness is lived out in partiality for and consideration of the poor and the weak. We are to love our neighbors as ourselves. God's people exercise justice and love in their dealings with one another.

The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

²Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy. ¹⁵You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. ¹⁶You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

¹⁷You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. ¹⁸You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

Pastor: Word of God, word of Life.

All: Thanks be to God

PSALM: Psalm 1

“Happy are They” TFF 1

Sing Refrain

Hap - py are they who trust in the LORD.

Oh, hap-py are they* who trust, trust in the LORD.

Sing verses using Psalm Tone

Psalm Tone

¹Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel | of the wicked,*
nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats | of the scornful!
²Their delight is in the law | of the LORD,*
and they meditate on his law | day and night.
³They are like trees planted by streams of water,
bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that | do not wither;*
everything they | do shall prosper.

Refrain

⁴It is not so | with the wicked;*
they are like chaff which the wind | blows away.
⁵Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when | judgment comes,*
nor the sinner in the council | of the righteous.
⁶For the LORD knows the way | of the righteous,*
but the way of the wick- | ed is doomed.

Refrain

SECOND READING: 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

Paul uses maternal imagery to depict the caring and nurturing relationship he shares with the Thessalonian Christians. When he first came to their city it was not to benefit himself but to share the gospel with them, which was his responsibility as an apostle of Christ.

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, ²but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. ³For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, ⁴but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. ⁵As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; ⁶nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, ⁷though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. ⁸So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Reader: Word of God, word of Life.

All: Thanks be to God

Pastor: The holy gospel according to Matthew, the twenty-second chapter.
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Matthew 22:34–46

Put on the spot by the Pharisees, Jesus displays wisdom by summarizing the law of God in just two commandments and by demonstrating the Messiah must be more than the son of David.

³⁴When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, ³⁵and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ³⁶Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest? ³⁷He said to him, " 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the greatest and first commandment. ³⁹And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' ⁴⁰On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

⁴¹Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: ⁴²What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he? They said to him, "The son of David." ⁴³He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

⁴⁴'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet" '?

⁴⁵If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" ⁴⁶No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

*APOSTLES' CREED

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
 I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died, and was buried;
 he descended to the dead.
 On the third day he rose again;
 he ascended into heaven,
 he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
 and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life everlasting. Amen.

*SHARING OF THE PEACE

The passing of the peace is a sign of our common unity under Christ, a time of community. Because of health concerns, members are encouraged to share the peace and join with others in the Lord's Prayer in ways they are comfortable with. All are also encouraged to be true to their own beliefs and be aware of their own health, limiting contact when they have been ill, and washing hands frequently. Hand sanitizer is available in Larson hall for your usage.

Pastor: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
 All: And also with you.

OFFERING

(The offering is collected)

October loose offering is designated to CROP Hunger Walk. This means that if you have loose offering which you would like to designate to the general ministry of the church, you will need to place that in a pew envelope. Loose checks made out to Trinity United will also go towards our general ministry. All other loose offering will go towards the designated outside ministry.

PRAYERS

Pastor: In grateful response to God's endless bounty of grace, let us pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

Each portion of the prayers ends with these words:

Pastor: Lord, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

The presiding minister concludes the prayers with these words:

Pastor: Into your hands, holy God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your abundant mercy; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All: Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

All are invited to join hands while praying:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,

SUNDAY SCHOOL meets from 11:00 a.m. until Noon. This cooperative ministry between Sagrado Corazon & Trinity United offers our community something unique – both English and Spanish worship offered weekly, with bi-lingual Sunday School in between.

REMEMBERING ALL THE SAINTS: In conjunction with All Saints Sunday a "Book of Remembrance" is in Larson Hall for all members to write in, listing loved ones who have died. The names from this book, which will be available all Sundays in October, will be remembered on All Saints Sunday, November 6th. Pastor Rich offers to meet members at the graves of their loved ones for a short prayer of thanksgiving and remembrance. Contact the church office for more information.

TRINITY W.E.L.C.A. meets Monday, November 7th at 7:00 p.m. in Larson Hall for a general meeting. Pope's Florist's Pat will be showing designs and arrangements for the coming holidays.

COOL TRANSITIONAL HOUSING ANNUAL FUNDRAISER DURING OCTOBER: Samples of items that can be ordered such as calendars, note pads, greeting cards, Christmas cards, etc. with a religious theme will be on display in Larson Hall after worship. Stop by and see Diana Knoble to place an order that supports COOL Transitional Housing.

END TIMES BIBLE meets Wednesday morning from 10 – 11:15 a.m. in Larson Hall for easy access.

TRINITY UNITED THIRD QUARTER CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS are ready for pick up in Larson Hall. Please take your statement today to help save postage costs. Thank you!
