TRINITY UNITED LUTHERAN CHURCH

658 Grand Avenue, Waukegan IL

Fourth Sunday of Easter

May 15, 2011
9:30 a.m. Communion Service

WELCOME

Welcome to all who gather in worship together this morning at Trinity United. Our goal in worship is to invite all people into an encounter with God that moves them to give all they are back to God. We hope this is the experience that you have this morning. Whether you are a first-time visitor or long time member, the following items might be of help to you as you participate in our worship service.

Communion Invitation: The sacrament of Holy Communion is offered as part of our worship service. You need not be a member of Trinity nor even a Lutheran to share the Lord's Supper. We invite all who are baptized and who believe that Christ comes to us through this meal of bread and wine. Children who have not yet received First Communion instruction are invited to come forward for a blessing by the pastor.

Communion Distribution: Communion is continuous and will be served by intinction. Intinction involves taking the wafer given by the presiding minister and dipping it into one of two cups held by the worship assistants and then placing the wafer in your mouth. The cup closest to the presiding minister contains wine. The cup farthest from the presiding minister contains grape juice. Those who wish may kneel at the communion rail for prayer after receiving communion and are welcome to do so. After receiving communion and/or kneeling for prayer, participants are asked to return to their seats via the side aisles. Please let our ushers know if you need to receive communion in the pews.

Questions: Hospitality team members are located throughout our worship space. They are wearing a name tag with their name and "Hospitality Team Member" printed on it. They will be happy to answer any of your questions before, during or immediately after worship.

Worship Information Forms: In order to have a record of worship for both members and visitors, we ask that you fill out the worship information form. You may also use this sheet to communicate prayer requests, celebrate good news, or share information with the church staff. Worship information forms will be collected by the ushers during the Hymn of the Day so that your prayer requests may be offered in worship today.

Children: Children are always welcome in worship. However, should the need arise, our cry room is located at the back of the sanctuary. Changing tables are located in our washrooms.

Cell Phones: We ask that you make sure your cell phone is off or in "silent" mode during the worship service.

GATHERING

Today is sometimes called "Good Shepherd Sunday." Jesus is called the "gate" of the sheep in today's gospel. The risen Christ opens the way to abundant life. He anoints our heads with oil and guides us beside the still waters of our baptism. Each Sunday he spreads a feast before us in the midst of the world's violence and war. We go forth to be signs of the resurrection and extend God's tender care to all creation.

INSTALLATION

Pastor: St. Paul writes: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit gives them. There are different ways of serving, but the same Lord is served. There are different abilities to perform service, but the same God gives to everyone ability for particular service. The Spirit's presence is shown in some way in each person, for the good of all. (1 Corinthians 12:4-7)

You have been elected to positions of leadership and trust in this congregation.

You are to see that the words and deeds of this household of faith reflect him in whose name we gather.

You are to be diligent in your specific area of serving, that the one Lord who empowers you is glorified.

You are to be examples of faith active in love, to help maintain the life and harmony of this congregation.

Pastor: On behalf of your sisters and brothers in Christ, I ask you: Are you ready to accept and faithfully to carry out the duties of the offices to which you have been elected?

R: Yes, by the help of God.

Pastor: People of God, I ask you: Will you support these, your elected leaders, and will you share in the mutual ministry that Christ has given to all who are baptized?

All: Yes, by the help of God.

Pastor: I now declare you installed as council members of this congregation. God bless you with his Holy Spirit, that you may prove faithful servants of Christ.

R: Amen

*SHARING OF THE PEACE

The passing of the peace is a sign of our common unity under Christ, a time of community. Because of health concerns, members are encouraged to share the peace and join with others in the Lord's Prayer in ways they are comfortable with. All are also encouraged to be true to their own beliefs and be aware of their own health, limiting contact when they have been ill, and washing hands frequently. Hand sanitizer is available in Larson hall for your usage.

Pastor: The peace of Christ be with you always.

All: And also with you.

ANTHEM

“Sheep May Safely Graze” by J.S. Bach, arr. C. Albert Scholin

Trinity United Choir

*In the grassy meadows, shepherds watch over
 The sheep and lambs as they safely graze.
 Like a shepherd God watches his flock;
 He watches tenderly while his sheep safely graze.
 Lord, we praise thee for such love and care.
 We like sheep and lambs find peace.*

*Help us lift our eyes, dear Father,
 Unto the hills, whence cometh help and strength.
 Make us feel thy guiding hand, dear Father,*

Lead us in the paths of righteousness,
Help us follow in thy footsteps,
Help us feel the presence of thine ever watchful care.

THE WORD

FIRST READING: Acts 2:42-47

Today's reading is a description of life in the community following Peter's sermon on the day of Pentecost, when the Spirit was outpoured on God's people. This new community is founded on the teachings of the apostles and sustained in the breaking of the bread.

⁴²They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

⁴³Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. ⁴⁴All who believed were together and had all things in common; ⁴⁵they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." ⁶Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁷So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

SUMMER MUSIC MISSION PLANS: This week we learned that we have received a $6,100 grant from the synod's Fund For Mission for our summer outreach program. Thanks be to God!

We need to get started on planning our neighborhood festival which will be Saturday, July 23. Next Saturday, May 21, at 10 a.m. in Larson Hall all interested members are encouraged to meet with members from Sagrado to begin to make this dream a reality. Saturday is the only time their members can meet because of job commitments. Please let Pastor Rich know if you'll be there.
